Conſtantinople, July 24, O. S.

IT is ſaid the Grand Vizier has ſent a very able Perſon along with the Perſian Ambaſſadours to Schack Thamas, to endeavour to prevent a War, and to perſwade him to confirm the Treaty which was made with thoſe Ambaſſadours here; and that the Vizier has likewiſe given Orders to the Baſha of Babylon to do all that lies in his Power to terminate theſe Differences between the Porte and the Perſians in an amicable Manner. The Vizier will not begin his March from Scutari to Aleppo till the Beginning of September next; before that Time he expects an Anſwer from Perſia, and will regulate himſelf according to the Advices he ſhall receive from thence. 'Tis reckoned to be a March of 56 Days from Scutari to Aleppo, ſo that he cannot be at Aleppo before the Beginning of November at ſooneſt. In caſe of a War, he will winter at Aleppo, and march with his Army to the Frontiers of Perſia early in the Spring. It is likewiſe ſaid, that if there is a War, the Grand Signior will go with his Army as far as Cognia, which is about half Way to Aleppo, and ſtay there during the Winter, and in the Spring proceed to the Frontiers, as there ſhall be Occaſion for his Preſence, with the Army. He will keep about 20000 Men with himſelf, and ſend the reſt with the Vizier.

Hague, Oct. 3, N. S. Admiral Perez having received new Credentials from the preſent King of Morocco, and delivered them to the States, is now acknowledged here as Miniſter of that King. M. March, the new Pruſſian Miniſter, has taken Poſſeſſion of the late King William's Houſe called the Old Court, in which M. Meinertſhagen dwelt for ſome Time. General Hompeſch ſet out from hence ſome Days ago for Boiſleduc, of which he is Governour. The States of the Province of Holland ſeparated on Saturday laſt. During their Seſſion a new Project was communicated to them by the Grand Penſionary for laying a Family Tax, different from one of that kind which they have had for ſome Time under Conſideration. The Prince of Naſſau Siegen ſet out this Morning for Bruſſels, with a Deſign of returning hither in a ſhort Time to proſecute his Pretenſions to ſome Part of the Eſtate left by the late King William. The Directors of the Eaſt-India Company, purſuant to the Liberty given them by the States, have diſmiſſed the Crews of their two Ships taken and releaſed by the Algerines from their Service. The Lord Baltimore and his Lady arrived here two Days ago, and deſign to go to ſee Amſterdam and Utrecht.
